

Cherry Valley considers TIF district

Cherry Valley officials say these properties scattered around CherryVale Mall are prime for commercial development. But projects won't bloom, they say, without tax subsidies to tear down existing buildings or extend roads or other amenities to these parcels. The village is considering a tax increment finance district to raise cash for that purpose.

CHRIS LEE | ROCKFORD REGISTER STAR